O God, Thou are the Author of all governments. We believe we can trace the footprints of Thy providence in the development of our own nation,—for certain reasons: That we might be a benefit and a blessing to all the nations of the earth.

At this hour we ask Thy special care upon the innocent ones in the lands of revolution, and we pray Thee that the diplomats of our own nation may be possessed of Thy wisdom in dealing with this great problem, that they may not entangle us in war and bloodshed.

May Thy blessing rest upon this session and the closing sessions of this Legislature; and we pray Thee that we may be guided by the spirit of harmony and goodwill, and that peace may abide in our hearts. And we will give Thee the praise. Amen.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE BITUMINOUS COAL INDUSTRY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Mr. PARKINSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, April 4, 1926.

Whereas, The bituminous coal industry of Pennsylvania in comparison with the industry in nearby states, is suffering under undue and unjust discrimination in rates for the transportation of coal from the mines to markets, even though said shipments should be entirely within the State of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The State has never given its consent to relinquishing all its constitutional right in control of intra-State transportation; and

Whereas, There is some doubt as to the right of the Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania to fix rates for the transportation of coal and other commodities wholly within the State; and

Whereas, A determination of this question might enable the Public Service Commission to fix fair, just and equitable rates for the transportation of Pennsylvania coal and other products to Pennsylvania markets, including shipments for export; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Attorney General's Department of the Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania be and are hereby authorized to investigate the subject of the said Public Service Commission's right to establish and maintain rates for the transportation of freight between points within the State of Pennsylvania and the said Public Service Commission is hereby directed and authorized to fix, establish and put in force such intra-State rates, providing legal power to do so is found to reside within it, and if such investigation develops the lack of such power, that the Attorney General's Department is authorized and directed to prepare whatever legislation may be necessary to endow said commission with said power of fixing and maintaining intra-State rates and to arrange for its introduction into the Congress of the United States or the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, or both.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The CHAIR cleared his table and laid before the Senate resolution reported from committee at today's session as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 29th, 1927.

Whereas, there will be celebrated during the month of October of this year the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of that memoral and epochal military engagement known as the Battle of Germantown, and

Whereas, it is the purpose that at the celebration of an event so important in the history of the nation, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania should be officially represented, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint [three] Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint two members of the House of Representatives and that the [five] persons so selected shall constitute a committee to attend said celebration as the Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and be it further

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 113, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the investment of funds of building and loan associations in syndicated or equal lien loans where the same are divided between or among building and loan associations individuals or corporations

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to say to the Senate that Senate Bill No. 113, has been on the calendar several times, and at the request of a small group of real estate men in Philadelphia I have always recommitted it, and have been very patient and very polite about the bill; but I am asking the Senate to-night if they will kindly vote the bill up or vote it down.

The bill is frankly directed against a small group of real estate operators in Philadelphia, and in my opinion they are the evil genius of the building and loan associations in this State. This bill is in the interest of the old-fashioned building and loan association, which was brought into being primarily for the purpose of financing homes. These gentlemen from Philadelphia say that is not the purpose of the building and loan association.

I hold in my hand a letter from the Department of Banking, written to me several months ago, which says, "It is the opinion of this Department that the building and loan associations should not be permitted to make large loans on business properties. If there is a demand for such loans a separate class of financing institutions should be organized. They should not use the words "building and loan" in their corporate titles, nor should they enjoy the special privileges granted to building and loan associations."

Senator Daix very kindly introduced me to Mr. Greenfield here one day, and Mr. Greenfield naturally objected to this bill; and I said I thought there was a better bill in the House, which was written by Secretary Cameron, Secretary of Banking. I am perfectly willing to have that bill displace my bill; but I am not perfectly willing to have that bill held up in the House and this bill held up in the Senate without at least going to a vote.

All I ask is that you send this bill over to the House Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, so all these bills can be together. The chairman of that commiteee asked me if I would not try my best to get the bill over to him. I hope the bill will not be recommitted but will be voted either down or up.

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I will, with pleasure.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, according to the calendar this is "An act relating tog fish and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish. What I want to know is, what kind of fish is "tog" fish?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, it should be, "An act relating to fish." The "g" is simply a misprint.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, it it "to" or "two"?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, it is "to". I might say, for the information of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, since he has raised the question: The act prohibits the fishing with power-boats in inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our infinite and eternal God Thou author of all light, Thou Creator and our Governor give unto everyone of us this night a due appreciation of all of the ordinary blessings that we enjoy, life and health and strength and sunshine. We thank Thee for the sunrise and for the sunset, for twilight and for the evening star, and for everything through which Thou art revealing Thy infinite wisdom and Thine infinite power, and tonight we especially thank Thee for the glorious past of this great Commonwealth and for this no less glorious present, for the noble men and women who have helped to make this Commonwealth what it is and for the men and women who are still striving to make this in every sense a government of the people. Bless the members of this House tonight, bless the presiding officer, guide us all in everything we do so that we may have the wisdom, that we may have the courage, that we may have the ability to do the things which are right and just. We ask it all in Thy name. Amen.

was agreed on final passage on Monday, March 28, 1927, be reconsidered.

Mr. HENRY A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the bill should be called up for a reconsideration in order to give everybody a chance to vote on the bill as it really exists. When this bill was voted on a number of people thought it contained features that it does not, and a number of others voted against the bill because of a misapprehension. The bill itself provides an increase of one dollar in the fees, and specifies that all revenue received over and above $350,000 must be used for the establishment and maintenance of hatcheries, and for the propagation of fish. It is a bill which aims to fill the streams with fish so that when a man goes fishing he will have at least a day's fishing. There is nothing in the argument that we should not put fish in the streams as long as the streams are polluted. If all of the streams were polluted, that would be correct, but I am right here to say, and I think the House will agree with me, that not nearly all the streams in Pennsylvania are polluted. If this proposal is adopted, and if the Fish Commissioners have this power given to them there will be established in the next two years, ten additional hatcheries. By this method they will be able to supply not only the fish for all of the streams, but fish large enough to stock all the streams they are put in. This does not apply to trout alone but to all classes of fish which the department has been propagating and supplying, and I ask you to give this motion favorable consideration and vote for this motion.

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. This is the same bill which we discussed one week ago tonight. It is a bill which aims to tax the two dollars upon the boy or girl, the man and woman over sixteen years of age who are fishing in the streams which contain suckers and bull heads and so forth. Under the act of two years ago, the so called fish code, particularly the fish they declared to be game fish, the State is not propagating but only a few species of fish and the native fish in our streams are not propagated by the State. They cost the State nothing. They are not in any way a burden upon the State and we would no have any objection to this bill if it applied alone to game fish or such fish as the State propagated.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander will state his point of order.

Mr. STADTLANDER. The gentleman is speaking on the bill and not on the motion.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine himself to the merits of the motion and not to the merits of the bill.

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I apologize to the members of the House and will speak later on the bill.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call your attention to this motion, as well as the bill. It was distinctly understood six years ago in this House with the Fish Commission, that after the age was reduced from eighteen to sixteen years, there would never be any requirement passed to raise the license of the fishermen, and I ask you, my friends in this House, to vote this motion down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Alexander and Mr. Ede and were as follows:

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moore.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WHEELER. Did I understand the gentleman from Bradford to say that the Fish Commission propagated none of the so-called food fish that the small boy fishes for?

Mr. F. N. MOORE. No sir, you didn't understand me to say that. I said there were species of fish which they did not propagate.

Mr. WHEELER. Do these species include the little but toothsome bull head and the savage cat fish?

Mr. F. N. MOORE. I think recently they have been propagating food fish, but they do not propagate suckers.

Mr. WHEELER. Perhaps the supply is ample in Bradford County.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. F. N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to advise the sportsmen of this House, including both fishermen and hunters, that the farmers of this State have been crowded about as far as they intend to go. We are well aware that here is an organized force of men who have sufficient money that are propaganding efforts to encroach upon every right which the farmer has got and the farmers are not organized for they are poor and do not have the time to spend for propaganda and paying for these efforts as they of the organized sportsmen and fishermen of the State have. I want you to listen to what I am saying. It may be of use to you later. The farmer of the State own their farms and the hunters and fishermen do not own the State of Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania State Grange—and I am speaking to by the book—I have been a member of the legislative committee of the Pennsylvania committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange for fifteen or twenty years and I have been overseerer of the State Grange for several sessions and what I am offering to you now is from the grange. Two years ago when there was an effort made to put across some encroaching legislation on the farmer's right, there was a great question whether or not the grange should cause to be printed bills prohibiting trespassing upon their lands and rigidly enforcing them. If you put across these bills you will cause the Pennsylvania State Grange, or through its agents, to publish notices and sell them to the farmer at actual cost. They will put forth their efforts to have their farms posted and it will be up to you fishermen and you hunters to know whether you are hunting and fishing on posted land or not. We believe that we have rights that should be respected. We have nothing in common against any ordinary man who wishes to fish or hunt, who wishes to come on our premises so long as he conducts himself properly, but when it comes to our common rights which we believe we have we will measure yard sticks with the sportsmen of Pennsylvania. I am telling you this so that you may vote intelligently whether you wish to respect the farmers rights, or whether you wish to say to the farmers: "You have no right."

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I fear that the last speaker may have created an erroneous opinion among the members in the rear of the House. Under the law of today neither the farmer nor any member of his family needs to have a license to fish on his own land or on the adjacent lands. A lot of the members in the rear of the House are of the opinion that a farmer must have a license to fish. That is untrue. This bill does not change the existing law in that respect. I might say that I don't believe that the last gentleman who spoke is talking in behalf of the farmers of the state. I have in my possession over one hundred letters from persons throughout the state of Pennsylvania who are speaking for this bill and asking for this bill to be passed, and among these letters the greater proportion of them come from the rural districts. I believe that the farmers are willing that the good sportsmen may go upon their land as long as they are law abiding, to fish, and I ask this House to vote "aye" on this bill. I wish to say further that there is a concensus of opinion among some of the members that the raise from a one dollar fee to a two dollar fee is too much. I will promise this House that if this bill is passed, and it is the concensus till, that the increase should be only fifty cents. I will see to it that the bill is changed when it reaches the Senate.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the Chair whether or not I am in a position to make a motion to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to place the bill on the postponed calendar. I voted to place it on the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. The Chair advises the gentlemen that he can make a motion to reconsider the vote by which it passed on third reading.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move for the purpose of amendment that the House reconsider the vote by which this bill passed third reading.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL PLACED ON POSTPONED CALENDER.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer amendments to this bill, but I have not had time to prepare them. I have the consent of Mr. Buller, and the sponsor of this bill, if we deem it available, to reduce the increase in this bill from one dollar to fifty cents, and if this bill can remain on the postponed calendar until tomorrow I will see that the amendment is prepared. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER, the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say to the ladies and gentleman of this House, that to a great many members of this House, this bill is very important. We are greatly embarrassed by the pressure upon us to get our constituents fish. We are unable to get them because the department does not have them and it does not have the money to build hatcheries to propogate fish. A great many of the ladies and gentlemen in the House, I think, would vote for this bill, if the increase were only fifty cents, but who are unwilling to vote for a one dollar increase, and for this reason the department and the sponsor are willing to have the bill placed on the postponed calendar.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair desires to take up out of order, for the purpose of advancing the calendar, bills on second reading. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Washington whether the amendments that have just been placed on the desk meet with the approval of the Governor?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. They restore the bill to the original form in which it was introduced in the Senate and in which it was introduced in the House by me. The Governor said that he hoped that the interest that was aroused at the public hearing would infect the House. It has infected me, and I hope it has infected a majority of the House.

Mr. MARCUS. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Washington.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARCUS. I would ask the gentleman from Washington whether or not he does not know of his own knowledge that the bill as amended in the Senate meets with executive approval.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I do not know of my own knowledge. I know it has been so reported in the press, and I know that the Governor has also said that he would do nothing to oppose a contest for his original measures, and these are the original measures.

Mr. MARCUS. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Washington.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I am ready for a continuous performance.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Washington if the amendments proposed by him are not the amendments given to him sponsored by former Governor Pinchot.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I have had no communication whatever with Governor Pinchot in connection with the bill. He is not Goveronr now. John Fisher is Governor, and I am back of him.

Mr. MARCUS. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman. I would ask the gentleman from Washington by whom were these amendments given to him, or suggested.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. These amendments were suggested to me by the hearing, and by reading the newspapers, the editorial comments in newspapers like the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Philadelphia Ledger, which state that it is the duty of the House to restore the bills to their original form.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I would ask you to vote these amendments down for the reason that Senate bill 543, which is the bill now on your calendar, was amended in the Senate. A letter was read by the sponsor of the bill, Senator Weingartner, on the floor of the Senate, in which it was the Governor was fully satisfied with the bill as amended in the Senate. The House Election Committee, with that thought in mind, immediately met when the bill was referred to this committee, and reported the bill as committed; and there is no desire on the part of anyone to change it, with the exception of professional reformers who are endorsing this amendment, and for that reason I ask the bill to remain in its entirety, as given to us by the Senate. I ask the members of this House to vote these amendments down.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before beginning what I have to say more formally, I wish to read this paragraph of a resolution from an Allegheny County organization, the League of Boroughs and Townships of Allegheny County, signed by Joseph T. Miller, president. The resolution says, "That it is the sense of the executive committee of the League of Boroughs, Townships and Cities of the third class of Allegheny County that proper election reform is desired by a vast majority of the people of this county, and accordingly the president of the league be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to bring to the attention of the Governor of the Commonwealth, and to the members of the General Assembly said desire for election reform to be affected at the present session of the Legislature, and that said election reform really reform, preserve and perpetuate the sanctity of the ballot, and that the necessary steps be taken forthwith to insure the citizens of the commonwealth that their votes shall be counted as cast", and that the emergency election reform bills of Governor Fisher be enacted into law.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I just have a word or two to say in behalf of these amendments. I have been in the newspaper game for some thirty years, and in all that experience I have never seen such an editorial reaction on any public question as has been shown in the state wide interest on this particular question. The gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Marcus, has intimated that this amendment was inspired. I agree with him that it was inspired, but it was not inspired by the source which he suspects. It was inspired by the editorial reaction of the press of Pennsylvania, which voices the public sentiment in this commonwealth, and especially the press of the rural counties of this state, which is much closer to its constituency than the press of the metropolitan cities. Now, I doubt if anything has happened in this state in many years and I am sure there has nothing happened within my memory, that has aroused the people and stirred them so much as the interest in these election bills, and the efforts of certain people and certain organizations to hamstring the Governor and to stifle any true election reform. I read in the Philadelphia Evening Ledger a copy of the letter which was received by the Governor, and which was given out for publication. That letter said this: "Governor, if there is one thing in this world which arouses the ire of my Pennsylvania Dutch-Irish blood, it is crooked work at the polls. If this republic is to endure, we must have honest elections. As a Pennsylvania voter, I heartily support you in your efforts to pass new laws which will protect the election booth and ballot box. For the life of me I cannot see why any honest man should object to the opening of the ballot box. In fact, in my opinion, the way to check up is to take all the records of each division, open them up and count them just the same as I do when I balance my cash. Right here in Philadelphia, during the past few years, we have had numerous persons tampering with the ballot box and election returns. Frankly speaking, according to my ethics, a person who tampers with the election returns is guilty of a crime almost equal to a murder, because they stab at the very foundation of our free and liberal government. As I said before, if the republic is to endure, we must have honest elections."

Now, Mr. Speaker, I do not have any Dutch-Irish blood in my veins, but I do have a lot of Scotch-Irish blood. All my ancestors, on both sides of the house, have served in all the wars in which this country has engaged. They fought for the establishment of this country, and they fought for the maintenance of its institutions, and perhaps this accounts for the fact that I am so much interested in the purity of elections, and the safe-guarding of the ballot box. There is nothing that stirs me more than to have the election returns tampered with, and have the honest votes of good citizens in some sections of the state nullified by the dishonest votes in some other part of the state. Now, I yield to none in my admiration and my regard for Governor John Fisher; neither do I yield to anyone in my desire to support him and sustain him in carrying through his administration program. I supported him in the primaries, and my support of him there began long before the primary began. It began when he was forced out of the race four years prior to it, and I can say here, without fear of successful contradiction, if it had not been for myself and those with whom I am associated, John Fisher would never have carried Washington County in the primaries. The so-called Republican organization in our county was split three ways, and the majority of the votes went to the candidate other than Mr. Fisher. Governor Fisher's election reform program, as announced by him, was just this: to insure the free use and the fair count of every qualified voter. That, gentlemen, is the platform on which I stand. That is the platform and the action which my constituents demand. I can support nothing short of this, and retain my self respect, or the respect of my constituents. Then there is another side of this question. The future of the Republican party is at stake if we permit election frauds to continue. If we value our party and want to see it maintain its place of power, we must see that we have honest and straight and upright elections. I think the vote received by the Democratic candidate for United States Senator last fall is mighty significant. Many a man who never jumped the Republican fences before, jumped it that time, and having jumped them once, they will find it easier to jump again.

The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, said over in the other chamber one day last week, that the Senate had the "wobbles," and he said that one of the characteristics of the wobbles was to have cold feet. Well, I don't have the wobbles a bit on this question, neither do I have cold feet on it. I am willing to go on record, and if I mistake not, a majority of my colleagues will stand with me. It is time to stand up and be counted. I am perfectly willing to be counted if I am the only one counted. The first speech that I ever made in Harrisburg was made in 1925, and I said on that occasion that I hoped to do my duty down here, and to go home so that I could go down street and look every man in the face and tell him to go plumb to hell. If this bill is voted down and I should vote for emasculating the election program, I could not go down street with that sort of satisfaction.

Mr. MARCUS. I should like to further interrogate the gentleman from Washington.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARCUS. I would ask the gentleman from Washington whether I heard him correctly,—whether the gentleman from Washington stated that he was the political writer for the Washington Observer.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I didn't so say. I said I had been connected with the newspaper game for over thirty years, with over half a dozen different papers in Western Pennsylvania.

Mr. MARCUS. I would ask the gentleman from Washington, as a newspaper writer, whether or not in the last election he did not write editorials advising the Republicans of the state of Pennsylvania to vote the Democratic ticket.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I can answer you and I want to answer you, I did not.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore.

The SPEAKER. Will the Gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman this: Did I understand you to say you received a communication from Mr. Miller, the president of the Borough League?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I did say that.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Is that a private communication from him or is it an authorized statement from him?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I do not know, it is just signed by him as president.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Do you know whether or not the League of Boroughs ever met and passed this resolution?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I presume it did. This is a personal letter to me from the president, Mr. Miller. It is addressed, "My dear Mr. Moore", and signed by Mr. Miller.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Why did the gentleman say then that it was from the president of the Borough League?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I said it was from him and he signed it.

Mr. STADTLANDER. You don't know whether it is authentic, whether or not it was actually passed by the League of Boroughs?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. It is before the executive committee. I only went by the letter, and you may look at it if you don't believe me.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you will take the trouble to look at the bill that we now seek to amend, you will find that the amendment simply seeks to change by striking out substantial error" and insert the word "error", Now, why should we have a lot of litigation in court through a mistake. Unless the mistake is substantive, unless it is real, unless it changes the result, unless it produces some good why should people go to court to change some trifling error. This bill, if you amend it back as the gentleman from Washington would have you amend it, means this for Philadelphia County: we have 1400 election districts, and if they come in with petitions on a guess of error, they can open all the boxes, and then by the time it is necessary to certify the returns between the primary and the general election, there will be no ticket made up; there will be nothing to send to the printer, so in the hands of a lot of fanatics it will simply destroy the whole election machinery. Now why should they not be required to say that substantial error exists. If they have anything at all to kick about it should be real, it should be something that changed the result of the election, not merely guesses, and I ask you to say we will not put in the hands of these fanatics a weapon or something to go into the courts of Philadelphia County and tie up the whole election machinery, and defeat the purposes of the election laws.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Alleghenly, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOWE. I would ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, if this amendment were put into this bill, would it not restore it to the original form as introduced by Governor Fisher?

Mr. MARCUS. It would.

Mr. HOWE. I would further interrogate the gentlemon from Allegheny, by asking him whether or not at the last public hearing of the Elections Committee there was not a large body of voters from all over the state of Pennsylvania, asking that these bills be restored to their original form?

Mr. MARCUS. There was.

Mr. HOWE. I would further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, by asking him if there was any opposition at that hearing to putting these bills back to the original form as sponsored by Governor Fisher?

Mr. MARCUS. There was no opposition at the public hearing.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, has spoken to me, and it meets with his approval, and I think it may meet with the approval of the House, that the amendments lie over for printing and the bill be passed in order, and I make that motion.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say that I second that motion.

The SPEAKER. The motion is out of order. The action is upon the amendments as they are before us, and the House must act on the amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Glenn Moore and Mr. Sowers.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in view of the fact that House Bill No. 1200 and House Bill No. 1352 seem to be attempting to accomplish the same purpose, it is in order that the House should have an explanation as to the two bills before them. House Bill No. 1200 is an amendment to the act of 1923, the present act. It changes the one cent permanent tax to two cents and provides for a one cent emergency tax. In other words, the constitutionality of the present act is determined beyond the probability of a doubt. House Bill No. 1200 simply amends that act, the constitutionality cannot be questioned. House Bill No. 1352 is a new act and attempts to collect the tax from two angles. In other words, it will collect a tax from those who resell and it will collect a tax from those who import for the purpose of consumption. It is an attempt, and a mighty complete attempt, to stop the bootlegging of gasoline in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to make all those who use gas, whether it is for resale or whether it is bought outside and imported into the state, pay the tax. Two kinds of permits will be issued; one to the party that resells. If you are buying now from a reseller you will continue to buy under this act as you would under House Bill No. 1200 and pay the tax to the resale agent. But, if you are going outside of the Commonwealth and buying a carload of gasoline or a truckload or a barrel, and bringing it into the State of Pennsylvania for the purpose of consumption, House Bill No. 1352 will compel you to pay the tax just the same as the smaller consumer, who drives up to the tank and has the tank on his car filled. House Bill No. 1352 carries a repealer that will repeal No. 1200, if it should carry and be declared unconstitutional, which we are very positive it will not, because most eminent counsel has given an opinion on this bill and they are unanimous in their opinion that it will stand the test of constitutionality. But if it should carry and 1352 be declared unconstitutional, it, with its repealers falls, and No. 1200 comes back into place to carry on the splendid program of roadbuilding which the department has been carrying on during the past years. Just here is what that tax means. We all know that the words money and roads are synonomous; without money you cannot have roads. Just this for illustration; if you were driving a touring car and you drive it seventeen thousand miles during one year this one cent tax law would compel you to contribute eighty-three and one-third cents a month to the coffers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of building roads, and you know there is nothing that emphasizes the importance of our Commonwealth quite as much, and yet that small contribution on your part will keep up a fund of $15,000,000.00 which will complete a road across the entire State and half way back again. I hope you will support this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER, Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

Mr. SOWERS. Will this bill affect the Philadelphian who drives to Atlantic City and on his way back fills up his tank with gas?

Mr. HESS. If the bill was strictly interrogated, I believe he ought to report the gas he got, but it will work both ways.

Mr. SOWERS. Are you satisfied to amend this bill so that the Philadelphian that drives over to Camden and buys ten gallons of gas and comes back to Philadelphia, will not be subject to the bill?

Mr. HESS. No, I would not be satisfied to amend for so small a particular as that. On that point it works both ways.

Mr. SOWERS. Cannot that man be made the subject of tax and arrest?

Mr. HESS. No, he wont by reason of the fact that he is a consumer.

Mr. SOWERS. No, in that case he would be an importer?

Mr. HESS. I will read what consumer covers:

> (c) The word "consumer" shall include any person firm copartnership association or corporation who or which imports or causes to be imported into this Commonwealth liquid fuels as defined in this act for his or its own use and also any person firm copartnership association or corporation who or which uses liquid fuels in this Commonwealth not purchased from dealers as defined in this act and on which no tax was collected by a dealer under the provisions of this act"

Mr. SOWERS. Then you feel that he would be covered by this act?

Mr. HESS. I am sure of it.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EACHES. If this act becomes a law, will it affect mortgages held for investment?

Mr. HESS. As the act was originally drawn these taxes would have been a first lien against the property, both real and personal and the franchise of the reselling agent who made a false report or failed to pay his taxes, but section 12 provides under the amendment that such a tax shall be a first lien only when put on record in the county where the dealer's franchise or property is located.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. This bill will increase the present tax on gasoline by one cent; in other words make it three cents, will it not?

Mr. HESS. As compared to the present law, yes sir.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, advise me of the approximate amount of money contributed in this manner by the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia?

Mr. HESS. I do not have these figures. The gentleman from Allegheny can at any time on application to the Highway Department.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Will the gentleman from Lancaster advise me as to the amount of roads that the state of Pennsylvania has built in the counties of Allegheny and Philadelphia?

Mr. HESS. I have not gone into the matter of the mileage built in Allegheny County. In the county of Philadelphia, they have not built any. I can tell you what they have done in the Commonwealth; they have accomplished wonders and they have built roads of which we are all proud.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Will the gentleman from Lancaster advise me as to how much road there was in the amnibus bill of 1925?

Mr. HESS. Yes sir, 1175 miles.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. How much of that was contributed to Allegheny and Philadelphia counties, and how much was built?

Mr. HESS. I remember distinctly that Allegheny county got its full share. I also might say that in the omnibus now being considered Allegheny county is on the job and endeavoring to get its full share again and they will get it and they are entitled to it.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Will this bill be constitutional against any person trading in inter-state commerce?

Mr. HESS. Trading in inter-state commerce is amended from and exempted from this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. EDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman to explain how he expects to get any results if this is enacted into a law.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is aimed at the reckless drivers. As you know, today there are a number of people who are driving machines who cannot afford to do so. They do not have property, and because they are in such financial circumstances they are driving recklessly, and when they get into an accident, they just tell you to go some place where you do not care to go, and then continue with their recklessness. We propose to use this as a club over their heads, and say to them, "You don't need to carry insurance but you must drive carefully on the highways if you want to drive a machine." We want these reckless drivers to consider the cases of other people and their safety, as well as their own, and this is to be used as a preventative measure, saying to them, "You must drive carefully." This bill has been submitted to the automobile associations of the state, and I have on file here replies from approximately forty automobile associations throughout the state, and every one of them has endorsed this bill. All those who have been opposed to compulsory insurance have advocated this bill in preference to compulsory insurance. I heard today that the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce, in their report, stated that they have gone into the matter carefully, and do not think the bill will accomplish the purpose intended, but all of the automobile associations have got behind this bill, as they felt that it will tend to prevent recklessness.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Northampton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Ede, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. EDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Does this bill only apply to judgments covered by automobile cases?

Mr. EDE. That is correct.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. And if the judgment, is paid, they will then get their licenses back?

Mr. EDE. That is correct.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. So that it is a club held over the head of a man who has an accident?

Mr. EDE. It is for the protection of the man who has no desire to drive recklessly.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is not a new bill. They have been trying to pass this bill for several sessions. The bill will do no good to anyone. If the man cannot pay the judgment they will take his license away from him, but if he can pay the judgment at any time they will let him have his license back. Besides this, the bill is clearly unconstitutional. It is special legislation for a particular class of judgment creditors, automobile creditors, no one else, and the creditor in any other tort would not have this remedy. I refer the members of the House to the constitution, article 3, section 7, which says: "The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law for the enforcement of judgments." Now, I take it that this bill is for the sole purpose, as the gentleman has said, for the enforcing of a special class of judgments, which is purely unconstitutional. In one of the opinions recently written by the Supreme Court, this statement was made: "A special method seems to be provided for the collection of a special class of judgments, which method would not be available to holders of other judgments secured on account of a tort." So you see that under the constitution it is clearly unconstitutional. You are taking a particular class of creditors and allowing them to say, "We will take your license away from you if you don't pay, but if you pay it at any time, we will give it back to you." For the reason that it is not a fair proposition to take a man's only means of a livelihood away from him, and for the further reason that it is unconstitutional, I will ask this House to vote the bill down.

Mr. EDE. I desire to answer the learned gentleman by saying that the question of the constitutionality has been passed on by a number of prominent lawyers in the state of Pennsylvania. Some of the members of the House took a great deal of interest in this bill, sent it to a number of prominent lawyers, and they replied saying there was a fine distinction between the clause Mr. Whitehouse read and the terms of this bill, that they believed the bill is constitutional, and that the bill ought to pass. This is not a bill aimed at any special class, but it is aimed at the reckless driver. I cannot agree with Mr. Whitehouse as to the poor fellow who wants to earn a livelihood by running an old truck, possibly. He could go out and hit your child and my child and then turn around and hit the other fellow's child. That is the fellow we are after in this bill. That is the fellow we want to keep off the highway.

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Just one word more. There was an act passed some years ago, about 1915, giving the lawyer a lien on judgments recovered, practically the same case, and the Supreme Court, as late as 265 Pa. declared that unconstitutional. If the lawyers were a class, surely automobile creditors are a class.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Guerin.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 89, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section eighteen of article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill has been placed on the postponed calendar so often I think some attention should be called to it. I want to call attention to just what you are voting on before the call of the roll on this bill. This bill, with the amendment that was put in it, changes that part of the constitution which says that we can appropriate money to any institution by a two-thirds majority vote of both branches of the legislature. Now our present constitution has been in existence since its adoption in 1874, and has stood the test ever since. I believe if this measure were passed and finally written in as an amendment to the constitution, there would be so many appropriation bills submitted to this legislature that it would not be possible to give the present state-aid institutions one-fiftieth of what they are getting at the present time, and I feel that this bill should be defeated.

Mr. GUERIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, an explanation is probably due to you why this bill has been postponed so frequently and I am prepared to give this explanation.

The inspiration for the introduction of this bill occurred on the day Governor Fisher was inaugurated. I quote from his address as follows:

> "The Legislature should be empowered to make appropriations to classes of institutions rather than to individual establishments, to be distributed in conformity with the standards of service prescribed by law. Accurate budgeting is of such supreme importance to the conduct of the public business that I strongly urge constitutional amendments to correct the situations to which I have referred."

This is probably the particular case which he had in mind. Two years ago the legislature made an appropriation of one million dollars to the Welfare Department, giving that Department the right to contract with hospitals and institutions for the help of persons injured or indigent. Under this warrant of law the Welfare Department made a contract with St. Agnes' Hospital in Philadelphia for service which in the aggregate amounted to $105,000.—This service was rendered—the bill was approved by the Secretary of Welfare, by the Auditor General and the State Treasurer. Before it was paid, legal proceedings were commenced in the Dauphin County Court and the State Treasurer was restrained from paying the bill. Here we have a case where the legislature authorized the Welfare Department to make this contract, the service was rendered, but payment was stopped by reason of this article of the Constitution, in spite of the fact that it was proven in Court that the president of the hospital and at least one of the directors is a Protestant and the Treasurer is of the Jewish faith.

If any of the members of this House should be seriously injured on the highway, would he or she hesitate to be taken to a sectarian hospital? Supposing two men, one a Catholic and the other a non-Catholic were injured, the Catholic taken to a State aided hospital and the non-Catholic to a Catholic hospital, you would find that the State paid for treatment of the Catholic while the non-Catholic was cared for just as well in a hospital that received no state aid. Where does the question of sectarianism come in, in this case? This bill does not call for any appropriation of any character. It must be passed by the House and Senate three consecutive times and voted on by the people before it can become operative. Then if two-thirds of the House vote that any department of the State shall make a contract similar to the one referred to, the way is made clear to do so. When the bill came up for third reading, I was requested to have it postponed until the Governor would have an opportunity to consider it. This was agreed to and the next morning I visited the Governor and explained to him that I was only carrying out the thought he expressed in his inaugural address. He told me that he was as sincere now on the subject as he was the day he said it and he had in mind to refer it to the Constitutional convention, should there be one.

Just before the bill came up for third reading I was informed that it was marked to be voted against. I saw the man who suggested that it be voted against and in the presence of several others he told me I might say that he was not opposed to it.

My friends, we are approaching the season of the year when all Christiandom turns its thoughts to the lowly Nazarene. The word "sectarianism" as now was unknown to Him—there was no Catholic, no Protestant. His labors were for humanity, without distinction, rich or poor. Among his sayings are: "Use hospitality one to another without grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another as good steward of the manifold graces of God." He said further: "Ask and ye shall receive, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you."

I ask this in the name of Him who said: "For I was as hungered and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in; I was sick and ye visited me." And the King shall answer and say unto thee: "Verily I say unto you inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Schantz.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1504, entitled:

An Act permitting the sale of mortgaged real estate under a judgment upon the bond accompanying such mortgage to be made by the sheriff upon a writ of fieri facias without inquisition and without any other writ

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, every once in a while we have somebody from the title departments, or some one else, who wants to change practically the fundamental law, and this is one of those changes. I received a letter today from someone in Philadelphia, from a trust company, advocating the passage of this bill, and giving as an excuse that some times where a man waives the right of inquisition, and the property is sold, another man, a second party, not waiving the inquisition, if the inquisition was marked "waived" and it was sold, the title companies would not insure that title; while ordinarily a lawyer who issues an execution, whether it is on a fi. fa., or what it is, knows whether or not the proper person waived inquisition. At the present time, people do not have to waive that inquisition. That inquisition is a protection to the man who has a judgment against him and a bond and mortgage, and it is up to him whether or not he wants to waive that inquisition. In other words, he has a right to have a jury pass on that proposition as to whether or not the property which is about to be sold will in seven years give sufficient rents and profits to pay the debt, interest and cost, and if there is, then the lien is sequestered and the debt, interest and cost is equalled by the rents, issues and profits. It is true that not very often is this act brought into play, but those men, who wisely, for the protection of judgment creditors, give the right of inquisition, had in their minds the protection of the debtor, and there is no reason in my mind, after all these years, why this act of assembly should be repealed or amended at this time. I would ask that this House give the protection to the judgment creditor by letting this act remain as it has been heretofore, and let the lawyer who issues hisfi. fa., or the trust company, know that that man is to be protected from now on.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened with a great deal of attention to the argument of my friend from Delaware, Mr. Alexander. After listening to that argument, it seems to me that he was talking about a bill that is not before the House. The bill before the House provides in very simple language, to cover this situation; a man mortgages his real estate; he executes a mortgage and signs a bond and he signs a warrant of attorney. In the bond and in the warrant of attorney and in the mortgage appears the waiver of inquisition. The man who borrowed the money borrowed it on those terms and conditions. After he borrowed the money he sells the real estate to some one else, say Jones, and when Jones buys that real estate he has made a search of the record, and knows exactly what is against the real estate and the terms and conditions of the bond, the mortgage and the warrant, all of which appear on record. Some courts have held that Jones takes no higher right than the man that sold the property, and the waiver of inquisition goes from Jones to the buyer. Some other courts have held that that waiver of inquisition by the owner of the land, when the mortgage was put on, did not go over to the buyer, so that you have in this Commonwealth today two lines of positions, two different lines. In Philadelphia it has been almost a continuous practice to issue the writ of fi. fa., on the judgment entered on the bond, and warrant and accompanying mortgage, and sell without the inquisition. I do not exaggerate when I say that five thousand titles exist like that in Philadelphia today, one court saying they are good, and one court saying they are bad. There is no right lost to the subsequent purchaser, because he knew what he was buying, subject to the waiver of inquisition. There is no trick played on him, it is merely common ordinary justice. He buys the house for ten thousand dollars; a mortgage is on it for six thousand dollars. The mortgage ought to be paid, and he ought not to have the advantage of saying, by some reasoning in law, that he can avoid the payment of that mortgage. Now my friend Mr. Rhodes, when this bill was up before the House, raised the question that the inquisition ought to exist for all of them, but why should it exist when they, by contract, have waived it. I say to the members of this House, it is true that the title association of Pennsylvania was the real author of this bill. It is true that it is an honest effort on its part to make titles to land in this Commonwealth secure to the owners thereof. It is an honest measure. It is an honest effort to correct the evil of two different lines of decisions, and I ask the House to pass the bill as it is written.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the situation as described by the gentleman from Philadelphia is one situation, while that taken care of in the bill is another. It seems to me that the bill goes a great deal further than the gentleman from Philadelphia has in mind. It provides that no inquisition shall be necessary whether it has been waived or whether it has not been waived, and that is the objection that I have to the bill. It seems to me it is abandoning the privilege of any individual to waive or not to waive inquisition, as he or she might desire. The bill goes to that extent of providing that it does not make any difference whether you waive inquisition or not, that the sale can go on just the same on the fi. fa. The gentleman from Philadelphia describes a condition that seems to me is able to be taken care of in some other manner than by the bill now before us. I don't have any objection to having the situation taken care of as described by the gentleman from Philadelphia, but this bill goes a great deal beyond that point, and in that respect to me it is objectionable.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very glad that the gentleman from Philadelphia brought up a certain fact. He referred to the fact that when a man gives a mortgage upon real estate there is no reason why that man should loan that money and not be permitted to proceed against that land. I say yes to that proposition. If that man is honest enough to proceed against the land upon which he has his mortgage, he does not need any inquisition, he does not need any waiver or any writ, but they don't do that. A mortgage covers the land which is pledged, and that only; the bond which accompanies the mortgage, covers everything that man has and, therefore they don't foreclose on their mortgage when they are after you good and hard, as some of these people do, but they put their bond upon record, and then issue a fi. fa. on the bond. They do not have to give you a whole lot of notice unless when that comes before the sheriff, he gives you notice of inquisition. Many times when the fi. fa. is issued you don't know anything about it until after the writ is issued and the sale bill is up. I am speaking in this way because I know, I have been representing the sheriff of Delaware County for twenty-two years, and I know that many times the first notice you get is the sheriff's notice of execution. I say, let them proceed on the mortgage if they want to follow the land the man has pledged and you won't need any waiver of inquisition. No, no, they want to catch everything you have, they put the bond and mortgage on record, and when they foreclose, whether you waive inquisition or not, they want to sell you out, everything you have.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Alexander, of course, you are familiar with the fact that when a mortgage is executed it is an absolute grant and conveyance of the land pledged?

Mr. ALEXANDER. The land pledged and described in the mortgage, yes.

Mr. SOWERS. An absolute conveyance?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes, on certain conditions.

Mr. SOWERS. You are thinking about another clause.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I am speaking about the mortgage.

Mr. SOWERS. You know that under the law as it now is, that the mortgage has the immediate right to go into possession of the property, don't you?

Mr. ALEXANDER. He has not.

Mr. SOWERS. Have you any authority to sustain that fact?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Why, he has to foreclose on that mortgage before he can go in.

Mr. SOWERS. Don't you know that the old English law is still in existence in Pennsylvania today, that when a man mortgages a property the mortgage has the immediate right to go into possession of it, the same as a pawnbroker has the immediate right to go into possession of your watch when you pledge it?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I know they don't at the present time. I do not know what the old English law is.

Mr. SOWERS. Do you know the reason they don't do that is because they have to keep an account of all rents and profits?

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is one of the reasons.

Mr. SOWERS. That is one of the reasons. If a man conveyed his real estate by way of pledge, hasn't he, in a great sense, waived all inquisition?

Mr. ALEXANDER. No, he has not.

Mr. SOWERS. He has done more than that, he has given away his land, hasn't he?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Why do you enter the bond and then go on and sell everything that he has?

Mr. SOWERS. Answer the question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I was answering the question.

Mr. SOWERS. You stated to the House that this bill applied to a judgment, and that they didn't lien the land covered by the mortgage, didn't you.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What I said was—

Mr. SOWERS. Do you take that back? I refer you to lines seven and eight where it reads "upon a judgment"; have you found that?

Mr. ALEXANDER. All right go ahead.

Mr. SOWERS. "Upon a judgment entered upon a bond accompanying a mortgage secured upon the real estate."

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes.

Mr. SOWERS. Isn't that the real estate stated in the mortgage, and not any real estate, as you stated to the House?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I don't know whether you are trying to fool the House or not. You are not fooling me.

Mr. SOWERS. No, I am trying to get information from you. Doesn't that apply only to the land in the mortgage?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Absolutely no. It applies to other land, and any lawyer knows it.

Mr. SOWERS. Will you read those two lines to the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You just read the lines to the House.

Mr. SOWERS. Let me read them to you again, "upon a judgment entered upon a bond accompanying a mortgage secured upon the real estate."

Mr. ALEXANDER. On the bond accompanying the mortgage, but it don't say that bond shall cover that real estate.

Mr. SOWERS. Can you construe that any differently?

Mr. ALEXANDER. You cannot construe it any other way, the bond covers any land.

Mr. SOWERS. The bond ordinarily covers anything, but this inquisition is only to apply to the land described in the mortgage.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How do you make that out?

Mr. SOWERS. Read the lines again.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I don't need to read the lines. I know what the lines say.

Mr. SOWERS. You don't need to read them! Then Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Mr. Alexander does not need to read the lines. I ask you to read the lines. Reading over the language in the lines you will find that it applies only to the land covered by the mortgage, and the bill is meritorious in every respect, and the argument made by my friend is an argument that would apply to a bill written differently.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, but will the gentleman put his questions slowly.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You don't mean to tell this House that the bond, and the sale under the bond shall only cover the land pledged in the mortgage?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Alexander, I mean to tell this House in all sincerity that the judgment entered on the warrant of attorney or the bond that accompanies the mortgage.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Accompanies the bond.

Mr. SOWERS. You corrected me the first time in my life. If I had my hat on I would take it off. I mean to tell this House in all sincerity, that the judgment entered in the warrant of attorney accompanying the bond which accompanies the mortgage, applies to all land, but the dispensing of the inquisition applies only to the real estate described in the mortgage. Do I make the answer plain to you?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Yes, you have made that plain.

Mr. SOWERS. Then are you satisfied?

Mr. ALEXANDER. No, I am not satisfied.

Mr. SOWERS. Then ask me another question.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Doesn't this mean, and mean only, that the bond that accompanies the mortgage shall be entered upon the warrant of attorney if any property is sold?

Mr. SOWERS. No, show that to me, and if it does I will be against the bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What is the necessity of this act of assembly?

Mr. SOWERS. I thought I had explained it to you.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You have not, evidently.

Mr. SOWERS. Let me explain it to you. Now let us assume that Mr. Alexander owned a piece of land, and being a little poor he mortgaged it. That it liable to happen to any of us. Then you put a mortgage on. Say the land is $10,000 in value. You put on an $8000 mortgage, and you have waived your inquisition in the warrant of attorney in the bond and in the mortgage. You get a little bit poorer and you cannot carry the land, and you sell it to Mr. Turner, who is ready to buy it. Mr. Turner buys it and holds it. Some courts held that your waiver of inquisition does not apply to Mr. Turner; other courts have held that it does apply to Mr. Turner. Now, wait until I answer your question, and we will see if you understand the explanation. This act is to make it so that the waiver of inquisition that you signed will bind Mr. Turner. Now, do I make it clear to you?

Mr. ALEXANDER. To what Bar do you belong?

Mr. SOWERS. Not Delaware County.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What Bar do you belong to?

Mr. SOWERS. Not Delaware County.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean to say that you cannot execute that bond against Ellwood Turner, after purchasing that property from me?

Mr. SOWERS. The gentleman does not understand the explanation.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You are speaking about property that I mortgaged and waived inquisition and sold to Mr. Turner and you are going to issue against him.

Mr. SOWERS. Ellwood Turner did not put the mortgage on. The judgment entered on the warrant of attorney accompanying that mortgage could be executed without the inquisition against Mr. Turner.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Why don't you issue a sci fas on that mortgage?

Mr. SOWERS. Because the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, about fifteen years ago, recognized a new kind of practice, which evidently you are not familiar with, permitting executions upon bonds and mortgages.

Mr. ALEXANDER. No, I am not familiar with that skin game that some of you play in Philadelphia.

Mr. SOWERS. I just thought you read that decision.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I like to treat a man fairly.

Mr. SOWERS. Do you know the case of Reitzel against Greenholm?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I know if you want to skin a man, and want to get your flesh, I know you can issue on the bond and take everything he owns, but I am not one of those practitioners.

Mr. SOWERS. But this doesn't do that, Mr. Alexander.

Mr. PEELOR. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be further interrogated?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PEELOR. I am asking this for the information of the House. If you had taken a mortgage against the property of Mr. Alexander, and a bond was given waiving inquisition and exemption, and afterwards purchased the property and you entered that bond, would you have a lien on the property that he subsequently purchased if your bond was issued afterwards?

Mr. SOWERS. Let me see if I get your question right. If I took the mortgage from Mr. Alexander where there was a waiver of inquisition and exemption and so on, and then Mr. Alexander conveyed the property to Mr. Turner—

Mr. PEELOR. No, Mr. Alexander purchased another piece of property in addition to the one the mortgage was on, and then you entered your bond, do you obtain a lien against both those pieces of property?

Mr SOWERS. I do, when I enter that judgment, have a lien on both of his pieces of property, but if this act passes I would have the waiver of inquisition in that case on both pieces of property.

Mr. PEELOR. On both of them?

Mr. SOWERS. Yes.

Mr. PEELOR. Very well. Now if you entered the bond after he had purchased an additional property, if the property has been sold, if Mr. Alexander sells the property to me and then you enter the bond, would you issue the sci fa on that bond and obtain judgment against me as the terre-tenant?

Mr. SOWERS. If I proceeded on the sci fas and I adopted the new procedure ratified and confirmed by the Supreme Court about fifteen years ago, that would be right.

Mr. PEELOR. Can you cite the case in the Supreme Court on that question?

Mr. SOWERS. Starchel against Kenholm.

Mr. PEELOR. Do you remember the record, or the book or the volume?

Mr. SOWERS. I can give it to you tomorrow morning.

Mr. PEELOR. I would prefer, I would like to be certain about that as a question of practice. I think every attorney wants to be clear on that particular question.

Mr. SOWERS. In Philadelphia 90 per cent of the sheriff's executions today are not by way of sci fas, they are all by way of judgment entered on the bond and warrant. I don't like the practice, but the Supreme Court has said it is right. It says that you may enter judgment on a bond and warrant after the mortgagor has parted with his title, and then sell the property out while it is in the name of the grantee.

Mr. PEELOR. You enter your bond and issue your execution on the original judgment debtor?

Mr. SOWERS. I enter it on that, and execute against the property described in the mortgage, and I cannot do it on after-acquired property.

Mr. PEELOR. Is the terre-tenant mentioned in the execution in that fi. fa?

Mr. SOWERS. I would say this to you: when we first started to do that in Philadelphia he was not. It was evidently an injustice, and our rules of Court have been amended and now require you to give notice to the terre-tenant the minute you enter judgment and the minute that you issue your writ of execution.

Mr. PEELOR. Then do I understand you that a fi. fa. issued in that case would be a lien or a judgment against the terre-tenant?

Mr. SOWERS. Yes, under a decision of the Supreme Court.

Mr. PEELOR. Upon what notice do you obtain judgment against the terre-tenant?

Mr. SOWERS. It is not a personal judgment. The court has ruled it to be a judgment in rem as to the real estate. In Mr. Alexander's reasoning he has taken up judgment in personum, and has overlooked that further judgment in rem.

Mr. PEELOR. Has the Supreme Court decided the question of judgment in rem or in personum?

Mr. SOWERS. It has, and I would not be afraid to say that there is over $500,000,000.00 worth of real estate upon such titles today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 767.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 1, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I am returning herewith without my approval House Bill No. 767, entitled "An act granting a pension to Levi Heddinger of the County of Berks".

The beneficiary of this bill was for a little more than a month a member of Company K of the Forty-second Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers which was organized at Reading on July 3, 1863. Because he served less than ninety days he is not entitled to a Federal pension, and as he is at present in ill health, the Legislature feels that he should receive a pension from the State.

There are approximately four thousand veterans of the Civil War resident in Pennsylvania, who because they served less than ninety days cannot receive Federal pensions. Many of them are doubtless worthy objects of the State's beneficence. However, unless all of them are pensioned, it would be unfair to pension one or more of them.

Furthermore, if gratuities of this kind were to be paid by the State, they should be paid out of an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs, which could investigate the merits of the individual cases and make payments accordingly.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker. I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 31, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a Resolution of the House and Senate recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 436 for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly the original bill is herewith returned.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker, I move that the message, together with the bill, be laid upon the table.

Mr. MARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MEETING OF BANKS AND BANKING COMMITTEE.

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the unanimous consent of the House to permit a meeting of the Committee on Banks and Banking in the House Caucus Room during the session of the House, for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 177, known as the Branch Banking Bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to this meeting of the Committee. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and the Committee is granted permission to hold such hearing.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 288, entitled:

An Act to authorize referees in bankruptcy to administer oaths and affirmations to take affidavits and depositions to take and receive acknowledgment and proof of deeds conveyances mortgages and instruments in writing in like manner as aldermen justices of the peace notaries public and commissioners of deeds are empowered by law to do and to collect fees therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor explain the purpose of the bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill is to give notary public powers, which are now denied to them, to the referees in bankruptcy, the right and the power to administer oaths, the same as the notary public, alderman and justice of the peace now have.

Mr. ALEXANDER. At the present time a referee in bankruptcy cannot be a notary public?

Mr. WILSON. That is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does this bill provide that he shall be a notary public?

Mr. WILSON. It does not, but it gives him the power to administer oaths and accept acknowledgments.

Mr. ALEXANDER. But he now has the power to administer oaths as far as his office is concerned.

Mr. WILSON. Only on matters relating to bankruptcy only. This is intended to give him the power to administer oaths with the same force and effect as notaries public outside of his jurisdiction as a referee in bankruptcy.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words it makes an officer for the taking of acknowledgment of deeds, mortgages and other business that a notary public now transacts.

Mr. WILSON. It does.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:
